

Greg Devereaux

Managing Partner

Worthington Partners

Mr. Devereaux served in state and local government for 40 years, holding a variety of leadership positions including City Manager of both Fontana and Ontario, where he worked with the city councils to improve each city's finances, as well as Chief Executive Officer of San Bernardino County California where he helped the Board of Supervisors lead the County in a new direction which emphasized fiscal responsibility and working as a team. He worked with the Board and the San Bernardino Associated Governments in a community-driven effort to develop a Countywide Vision. He retired several years ago and has opened his own consulting firm working with both public and private clients.

Mr. Devereaux holds a Juris Doctorate from West Virginia University and is a Fellow at the National Academy of Public Administration, a member of public administration, policy and planning academic advisory boards at the University of California Riverside, and California State University San Bernardino, and an Adjunct Assistant Professor at the West Virginia University Eberly College of Arts and Sciences Division of Public Administration.

He is a Past President of the California Redevelopment Association and served on numerous committees at both the League of California Cities and the California State Association of Counties.

Over his career he has received numerous awards including: the Southern California Association of Government President's Award for Public Service Leader of the Year, the League of California Cities Inland Empire Division James S. Thalman Memorial Public Services Award, the Management Leader of the Year from the A. Gary Anderson Graduate School of Management at the University of California Riverside, the Building Industry Association Baldy View Chapter President's Award and Good Government Award, Inland Empire Economic Partnership Award for Leadership in Public Service, and the Clarence A. Dykstra Award for Excellence in Government from the Southern California Chapter of the American Society for Public Administration.
